Your occupation: Research Forestry Technician

Miles traveled to reunion: 170

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Ron Hall

Thoughts you are having approaching the reunion: Mixed—excited to see people and find out what people have been doing; but wondering if it's worth my time (not in a bad way as it sounds).

Funny high school story: During State Basketball Tournaments in Missoula our Junior year, I went with the pep band. Christi Loch, Patty Rustand, and Darcy Senn and I roomed together (I think those were the people). I brought some beer in my luggage (not me!), we drank it, then wondered what to do with the empty cans. Somebody had the brilliant idea to put them in the ceiling, so we moved the tile and tossed them up there. that night, I had weird dreams that the hotel would find them and trace them back to us and we'd get in trouble. So, before we left, we moved the ceiling panels again and retrieved all the cans and snuck them out to the dumpster.

Funny post-highschool story: At my graduation party this May, we popped the keg (another alcohol story?) at about 1:00pm. Several hours later (about 7:00pm), I needed to go for a walk so my boyfriend (Mike) and I walked down to the river. We were standing at this fence and petting a horse on the other side. The next thing I knew, I was laying on the ground and my upper lip hurt real bad!! I got zapped by the electric fence right across my face! Mike was concerned (I think), but he was laughing so hard, we couldn't talk. We went back to the party and everyone was laughing at my expense—my lip was swollen a little bit and rather numb, but no major damage. Then, when I awoke the next morning, I noticed this gash on my stomach and didn't know how it got there. We figured that when I fell, I must've hit another part of the fence or a stick or something.

Hobbies and interests: Going for walks in the forest/mountains and looking at birds, flowers, etc.; Country-western dancing; watching most sports (preferably live).

Your occupation: Bank Teller

Spouse's occupation: Forester

Miles traveled to reunion: 665

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Kay Dell Nelson

Thoughts you are having approaching the reunion: How fast time goes and if life has been good to the people I knew then, and hey!, if Tommy Lasorda can lose weight on Ultra Slim Fast, so can I!!

Funny high school story: High school is one big joke to me. While trying to T.P. a house, we were caught and during my escape, I tripped and skidded across a one-way street. As I got up, Kelly Brennan stopped to ask if I saved the T.P.

Funny post-high school story: One night I was visiting Leslie Wilson in her dorm room and after several hours, I got up to leave only to find out I had been sitting on a half-eaten Snickers bar. It looked like baby s_ _ _ , and we laughed for a half hour and woke up her R.A. she almost wrote Leslie up for being too loud.

Hobbies and interests: Fishing, hiking, wildlife, photography, music, travel, learning to golf and canoe, painting and crafts.

What you've done since high school: I moved to Ohio in 1988 and went to a community college and Ohio State in Columbus. While in school, I worked in a medical lab. I moved to California in 1992, just in time for the riots, earthquakes, fires and floods! I lived with my friend, Sterling Kozik, and some other people from Montana. I worked and went to school at USC and majored in communications, but I changed my major and now attend UCLA studying bioethics. My fiance' is a medical student at USC, and will graduate in 1996. Hopefully we will find the time for a wedding during his residency in Family Medicine.

Your Occupation: student/lab assistant

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Al Getten

Thoughts you are having approaching the reunion: Am I really this old? Is everyone else this old, too?

Funny high school story: More like "funny-looking." I broke my nose playing baseball in my sophomore year and had to wear a cast for a week. Very embarrassing!

Funny post high school story: I have gone to some Grateful Dead shows, and the whole scene is really quite humorous. At one show, some people were actually married in the stands! I have seen 'Gumby' at shows in San Francisco, people with flashing lights strung around them and during Mardi Gras, an entire parade throughout the Coliseum.

Hobbies and interests: I volunteer for the Los Angeles Philharmonic and public radio. I enjoy hiking and camping around the state, as well as skiing at Big Bear and Mammoth. I definitely have taken advantage of "California living." I regularly go to the beach, mountains and deserts; in the city, concerts and other cultural events. We travel quite a bit - California is enormous! I also garden at home with the help of my dog.

Miles traveled to reunion: .5

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Angela Nagengast

Thoughts you are having approaching the reunion: I am very nervous, I am still very shy, although I am now better at hiding it.

Funny high school story: Was there anything funny in high school? Kids seems sort of cruel sometimes. I'm glad I'm not a kid anymore.

Funny post high school story: A trip I made to Santa Cruz in 1988. Wasn't funny then, but in retrospect it is more humorous. It is too personal to share, but my dear friend knows who he is. I wonder what happened to him. You're in my prayer to this day. I love you.

Hobbies and interests: My children are my biggest hobby and interest. They are great! School, work, that's all I have time for now.

From:

CPT Dean Wollan

28 June, 1995

Dear Friends,

I wish I could be there now to greet you in person and catch up on old times and the years since we graduated. There are so many of you that I want to see! I hope you are doing well and life has been good to you.

I'm writing from Seoul, Korea, where I'm serving as a Captain in the Army. I can honestly say that ten years ago this is not what I thought I would be doing when reunion time came around. Even so, things have truly worked out for the best and, most importantly, I'm happy.

After graduation, I attended UM. Whether or not these four years were academically important is open to debate, but I had a lot of fun. Leslie and I split up during our freshman year. I travelled quite a bit with the Army and eventually got to study in Germany for a while. I graduated with a BA in Russian, a Commission in the Army, and a girlfriend, Lisa, who eventually became my wife.

My first assignment as a Second Lieutenant was at Fort Carson, Colorado, as a Tank Platoon Leader. My unit didn't fight in Desert Storm but, regardless of my pride, that probably isn't a bad thing. Lisa and I married after my promotion to 1st Lieutenant and when I made Captain I switched from Armor to Military Intelligence.

In the Spring of 1994, we were blessed with a beautiful baby girl we named Brianna Noelle. She is a joy and the most wonderful thing that ever happened to me. Brianna is walking, just barely, and says a few words. She likes animals and other children and so far only likes to watch "Wheel of Fortune" so she can clap when Vanna does. Pretty cute, huh? We think so.

My wife, the former Lisa Tsatsos, was raised in the Phillipines in an Air Force family. We met in ROTC (actually, I was her recruiter) and she got her degree in Education. We were able to come to Korea as a family and will be here for about two years.

Currently, I work as the Briefing Officer for Korean Theater Intelligence. It doesn't sound like much, but it's very interesting and I work directly for a four-star General. After my tour here, the Army is sending me to either the University of Washington or Georgetown University for my graduate degree and then for two years of study at the Russian Language Institute in Garmisch, Germany. Once my schooling is complete, I will serve as a military diplomat in Russia.

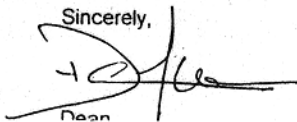

Well, I think I've covered all the major stuff. Portia, Twyla and Suzanne have stayed in touch with me and helped me through the not-so-good times over the past few years. They can fill you in on anything I've left out. I'm disappointed that I can't find out what all of you have been doing. If you want to contact me, I'd love to hear from you. My address is:

I apologize for the picture. We were expecting our household goods in June and they still haven't arrived so we had to take a quick picture here.

Take care of yourselves and thank you for taking the time to read this. My thoughts are with all of you there.

Sincerely,

Dean

What you've done since high school: Montana Air National Guard 1988-1994; B.S. Paralegal and B.S. Criminal Justice from C.G.F., 1991; Married, 1992; First child, 1994

Your occupation: Paralegal

Spouse's occupation: Detention Officer

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Mr. Getten

Thoughts you are having approaching the reunion: It will be fun to see who will show up and find out what everyone is up to.

Funny high school story: While having to do a skit in drama class, I used a fairy tale based on "Little Miss Muffit" ... sat on a tuffit and the spider came down and sat down beside her and said, "What's in the bowl, bitch!" It may have been inappropriate, but it was very funny.

Hobbies and interests: Softball, camping, remodeling the house, and spending time with my family. My interest in the law will lead me to law school hopefully this fall.

Spouse's occupation: Nurse (retired)

Miles traveled to reunion: 20 blocks

Favorite G.F.H.S. Teacher: Mr. Warhank

Thoughts you have approaching the reunion: Real apprehensive about seeing everyone; I don't know what to expect. Hoping it will be a lot of fun.

Funny high school story: John Holme and I kinda sorta tried to borrow some gas from Mini-Mart. He almost ran over me in the process. By the time the dust settled we kinda sorta got caught. Try explaining that to our parents!

Funny post-high school story: Trying to back my new boat into the garage with my almost-never-to-be wife. Never try this with someone you even kind of like.

Hobbies and interests: Hunting/fishing/snowmobiling/old special interest - cars/trying to keep my wife happy - that's real interesting.
